CABERNET SAUVIGNON

MOON MOUNTAIN DISTRICT, SONOMA COUNTY

“When I was growing up, I didn’t think much of going into my dad’s line of work as a wine-maker. So, I went to Irvine for the full four years and was going to be a doctor. I volunteered in an emergency room, came home one day and said, ‘No, I don’t want to do this.’ It wasn’t the blood or guts; it was actually just the doctors and the life side. I thought, ‘Are these people going to be my friends later on? No.’ I went to Davis and got a masters in winemaking instead.

It was the way I was raised—good food, not wasting time with bad food.”
